Performance Day

- Uniforms are distributed beginning 45 minutes before the attendance time
- Arrive early enough to dress, pass inspection, and be in the band room by attendance time
- You should be in line for inspection at least 10 minutes before attendance time
- Girls change in the choir room. Boys change in the auditorium. Leave your uniform hanger and personal clothes/shoes in those rooms

Uniform Inspection

Inspectors will verify that you are wearing your band t-shirt, uniform jacket, uniform pants, cape (except drumline and sousaphones), white socks covering your ankles, and clean Dinkles.

Inspectors will verify that you have your gig bag, hat or beret, gloves (except drumline), raincoat (when required), a plastic hat bag, and a plastic jacket bag.

While Riding the Bus and In the Bleachers

If Mr. Allen allows you to remove your hat and/or jacket, place them in the plastic bags supplied to you.

Post Performance

After returning to the school, you will properly hang your uniform jacket and pants on your assigned uniform hanger, have them inspected by Jane or Chris Burgett, and then return them and your hat to the uniform closet.

- Fold Pants with Seams Together and Creases Flat
- Make Sure the Jacket is Facing the Correct Way on the Hanger and Zipped
- Leave the Cape Attached and Hanging Smoothly

Uniform Care

- Report stains or repair needs to Jane or Chris Burgett
- Do not wash, dry-clean, or alter the uniform yourself
- Keep your suspenders adjusted and worn over your shoulders to maintain proper pant length and avoid frayed hems
- If you have confirmed with Mr. Allen that you are permitted to take your uniform home (for specific reasons), please transport it in a garment bag provided by Mr. Allen or Jane Burgett

Replacement Costs

If an alteration is made, or a uniform part is destroyed, severely damaged, or lost, you are responsible for the replacement cost.

Jacket $390 - Pants $211 - Raincoat $150 - Hat $96 - Cape $114 - Polo $30 - Garment Bag $20
